

The Untold Story of Ettie Hart

Ned Kelly My Love

A musical by Xavier Brouwer

AUDIENCE FEEDBACK

“The combination of story, score, lyrics and production was awesome - I couldn't have enjoyed it more!”

“I enjoyed the show greatly and found it both thought-provoking and entertaining. The music was varied and the characters very engaging. The set and lighting were excellent!”

“I must admit that I feel a bit jaded by the Ned Kelly story, but by presenting it from a different perspective you have given it a freshness and a bigger emotional impact. I was in tears at the end.”

“We all enjoyed the tight, poignant performance and what you brought to the narrative.”

“It was really well written. You seem to have captured the lingo of the time. Ettie was wonderfully feisty and the attraction was very believable. I very much liked the love duet, and the Revolution song especially”

“Five of us took in the show and fantastic is an understatement. The wardrobe was spot on to the period and the casting perfect. Congratulations to all involved!”

“Congratulations everyone! I thoroughly enjoyed the show. I cried!”

“I was so touched by the show that I left mesmerized.”

“It was a great show and the cast were excellent in the portrayal of their characters, complementing an outstanding job done by the writer and designers.”

“I had the privilege tonight of attending your musical Ned Kelly, My Love. The combination of story, score, lyrics and production was awesome - I couldn't have enjoyed it more!”
